In Their Words

Bob Lenz

So often these snapshot newsletters consist of me trying to explain just how God is changing lives through the ministry. But I often feel like my words fall short. How can I even begin to communicate how a life has been changed? How can I explain the mystery of grace showing itself in the lives of young people?

So, for this snapshot, I thought I would give voice to some of those who have written and shared their story with us. Because of your prayers and support, you are a part of their story too! Please rejoice with us, and continue to pray for those touched by the ministry, and those still waiting to hear a message of hope.

“You are a major hero to me. You have really touched me when you have talked. Thanks for everything!”
– Jordan

“God is using the book. I have had two of my family members read it too. My brother wouldn't read it though which is frustrating. I still have a lot of struggles that I have to deal with, but that's why God's grace is made perfect in our weakness.” – Adam

“Thanks again for ministering at Hills Alive! "Angel Bob" has been mentioned by quite a few in the post festival survey when asked to share their most meaningful story from the weekend. 300 received Christ and many more were greatly blessed....including me! Thanks, friend!” – Kathy

“This year at lifest was my second time seeing you and hearing you and I wanted you to know that you have opened my eyes to the Lord in a way no one else could.”

“I saw you at Ichthus and you made me laugh, which I love to do, and made me cry, which I've never really done much. You know how to preach it without being preachy... God Bless you Bro!”

“Your message is so true in so many ways. Trust me, I love who I am and that would never change, and I'm not insecure about who I am. You truly inspired me not to care what the 'popular' kids think. I am who I am and I'm proud to be me. Thanks for making a difference to people across our nation.” – Alex

“It was awesome and life changing. It really gets me motivated to speak to people about Christ. I never have, but I really want to. I have decided to witness to people and show them someone who can break their chains of sin (Jesus Christ, of course!) I bought the shirt that says When the world says no way, we say Yahweh. I love it.” – Emma

“After hearing about Compassion both nights at Agapefest in Greenville, IL, I felt compelled to sponsor a child. My wife and I and my 3 kids have sponsored a child in India. Thanks so much for your ministry and May God Bless You!”

“What I enjoyed about your show was that you took real life situations and found the humor in them. That is the best type of comedy there is!”

“Your comments have inspired me and my friends attending. Keep reminding us of the truth of His grace!”

“We did a survey in high school homerooms last Tuesday and Wednesday. Students had to fill in the blanks to complete your 4 key points and how to decide the loving choice (7 blanks total). It had been over a week since they saw you with a three day Easter break in between. Out of 210 surveys returned, 189 kids got 100% correct! That's 90%! I think that's amazing and a real testament to what you do and how you do it. Our initiative will be reinforcing your message throughout everything we do. THANK YOU!” – Jessica

“It was a wonderful night that touched so many people! I certainly hope that we can work something up for next year as well! You and your ministry are in our thoughts and prayers.” – Abby

“Oh, you don't know HOW much that weekend blessed me!! THANK YOU for sharing your passion of God with the rest of us!! I had so much fun! I am hoping to be able to get you to talk at my school in Missoula during a week called diversity week. I think our High school could really use a GREAT speaker like you!”

“You spoke to many of my friends and myself in a way that we haven't heard before. I really appreciate how you care for teens. One of my friends rededicated his life and decided to change his old ways. Thank you so much for being an encouragement to everyone.” – Amber

My heart is infused with a passion beyond myself for this generation. God Bless every church, individual and group that teams up with us and considers Life Promotions an outreach mission within our own border. We can not, and must not stop, until every teen in America knows that hope for this life and the next is found in Jesus.
